

FATBOY FIRE™

The ultimate South African braai & fireplace!

- Easy to use, for the whole family!
- Aesthetically pleasing free-standing braai & fireplace
- Easy to assemble/disassemble for transport
- Portable, so you can braai where you feel like!
- Fully adjustable grid to suit your own cooking preference (0mm – 400mm above fire)
- Option for double braai grid, for large outdoor cooking requirements
- Potjie pot attachment comes standard; fully adjustable for any pot/fire size! Even braai while your pot is simmering away.
- Low hanging, wide Fatboy Wok distributes warmth 360°, from your feet to your head!
- Shallow Fatboy Wok allows for good ventilation of fire, yet limits rapid wastage of fire wood
- No mess, no fuss! All ash and coal remains in the wok. Wok has drainage holes for rainwater.
- Creates the atmosphere for, and allows, many people to stand around the fire.
- Can stand on any surface without damaging. (Wok height adjustable to suit you)
- Hand made in RSA, using only RSA materials and suppliers. Support your Country!
